Deborah Bonham

After a filling dinner I was ready for some more live action. Deborah Bonham is the younger sister of Led Zep's legendary John Bonham and that can unfairly over shadow her at times, because she is a great artist in her own right. Her voice can fill the whole room especially on slower numbers like 'I Need Love'. 'Have A Little Love' was an enjoyable rocker in the Bad Company vein. The highlight was 'Old Hyde', a song about where the Bonham family hold many cherished memories, which actually brought a tear to the eye of Buckers - the old fool. Ending with a ripping 'Rock 'N Roll' Bonham more than anyone has a right to play that classic.
